

Reveal Sheet - Session 12 Dossier C / Organoid-Controller Hybrid

PRI is .76[.70,.82]. The same analysis code produces a high value, but a controller pulse imposes most of the differentiated response. No phenomenal or role calibration exists in hybrids. Tissue-only and hybrid verdicts reverse, and the controller regime changed during testing. Because candidate and regime are unstable, the theory's other gates cannot be interpreted.